

Here is a report of the activities of the India International Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies (IISECS) in 2020-2021.

Annual Conference of India International Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies (IISECS) along with the Department of English, Jamia Millia Islamia, Delhi on

'Binaries and Beyond: Gender Discourses in the Long Eighteenth Century'

Dates: 26 and 27 February, 2020

This was a very successful conference, with about 30 papers presented by eminent scholars, academicians and researchers. There were more than 150 participants over the two days of the conference.

We could not have the Annual Conference of 2021 due to the pandemic. We organised an online talk:

Annual Talk of IISECS

on 'Vernacular Modernity and its Evolution in Bhakti Poetry'

By Prof. Purushottam Agrawal

Date: 11 January, 2021; Time: 4.00-6.00 pm

Publication (based on previous conference papers)

Dutta, Sutapa and Nilanjana Mukherjee (eds). 2020. Mapping India: Transitions and Transformations, 18th-19th century

London and New York: Routledge. ISBN 978-1-138-50642-8