

GLEON 16 - GRIL Public Lecture / Panel Discussion

“Lake quality and citizen involvement”

Jouvence, (Orford, Qc) October 28th 2014

GRIL and GLEON are delighted to welcome you to their outreach activity for the public!

Evening Program:

Talks

7:30-7:34: Marie-Andrée Fallu, Research Liaison Officer, Group for Interuniversity Research in Limnology and aquatic environments (GRIL)

Opening remarks, welcome and brief description of the GRIL and GLEON

7:35-7:54: Shelley Arnott, Professor, Queens University, Ontario

James Rusak, Group Leader, Dorset Environmental Science Center, Ontario

Yves Prairie, Professor, Université du Québec à Montréal, Québec, and GRIL member

Lake health and citizen engagement

7:55-8:04: Kathleen Weathers, Senior Scientist, Cary Institute of Ecosystem Studies, New York (USA)

June Fichter, Executive Director, Lake Sunapee Protective Association, New Hampshire (USA)

Lake Sunapee (New Hampshire, US): A model for Citizen participation in lake research, management and protection

8:05-8:14: Eleanor Jennings, Professor, Centre for Freshwater Studies, Dundalk Institute of Technology (Ireland)

Environmental challenges facing Irish freshwaters, current management practices and recent progress

8:15-8:24: Bomchul Kim, Professor, Kangwon National University (Republic of Korea)

Toxic cyanobacterial blooms in Korean lakes and drinking-water reservoirs: Challenges and solutions

Panel

8:25-8:54: Panel discussion and question and answer period with the public (questions can be asked in French and translated)

Mingling

8:55-9:30: Free time where the public will be able to mingle and talk freely with scientists present (coffee and snacks provided, with access to a cashbar)

For more information about GRIL:

Marie-Andrée Fallu, Ph.D.

Research Liaison Officer, Regroupement stratégique FRQNT GRIL

Coordinator, NSERC-CREATE ÉcoLac program

(819) 376-5011 #3671

(819) 699-2353

marie-andree.fallu@uqtr.ca www.gril-limnologie.ca @GRIL_Limnologie