

Report on the activities of the Slovenian Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies (SD18)
during the past academic year (2022–2023)

Publications:

Bilten SD18, Nr. 14, 2022 containing summaries of lectures and a paper by Luka Vidmar:
Žiga Zois in the activities of the SD18 and in the scientific papers by Janko Kos.

<http://sd18.zrc-sazu.si/LinkClick.aspx?fileticket=9qpwkhiwhDE%3d&tabid=59>

Lectures:

Gregor Kovač, 21th april: Families of lower nobility in Prekmurje region with an emphasis on the 18th century

Jana Erjavec, September 29th: School chronicles as sources of (church) musical activity in Celje in the last three decades of the 18th century

Marjeta Pisk, November 17th: Handwritten songbooks from the legacy of Ivan Kokošar

Marko Snoj, February 23rd: A word about the Dictionary of the language of the priest Pohlin

<http://sd18.zrc-sazu.si/Dejavnosti/Predavanja/tabid/70/Default.aspx>

International activity (Collaborations): SD18 representative Boris Golec participates in the Executive Committee of the "Society for 18th Century Studies on South Eastern Europe (SOG18)" based in Graz, Austria.

Society members Metoda Kemperl and Ines Babnik published a contribution in the 2022 annual proceedings of SOG18.

Excursion: Through the 18th century Trieste: September 3rd

Web page SD18: <http://sd18.zrc-sazu.si/>

For SD18, Marko Kambič, President